

Dwelling in the Shelter of The Most High

*my place of safety,
my protection,
my shelter from danger*

Father,

I dwell in the shelter of The Most High.

I rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

He is my place of safety, my protection, my shelter from danger and hardship.

He is my security, my stability, and my resilience;

I rest in His strong tower;

He is my God, whom I trust

He will indeed save me from the hidden dangers, temptations, and the enemy's plans, and the affliction that sneaks around in the darkness.

I embrace the strength to face challenges, remain steadfast in the face of trials, and rise above my fears. Optimism guides my journey!

Many will come at me, but they will not come near me.

I will gear up for battle.

I will witness the consequences that fall on the wicked.

The Lord will send His angels to guard me;

They will keep me safe and protected because I am His child.

No harm will come to me, no disaster will be near me.

I will put on The Armor of God:

- The Helmet of Salvation -guarding my mind
- The Breastplate of Righteousness- protecting my heart
- The Belt of Truth- standing firm against deception and lies that the enemy uses
- The Shoes of Peace- providing stability and readiness (You don't have to get ready if you stay ready)
- The Shield of Faith - that will knock down every doubt, fear, and temptation that the enemy throws at me
- The Sword of the Spirit - that will allow me to speak the word of God against the enemy.

He has given me the power to conquer all that is placed before me.

When I call out to Him, He answers. He will be with me in times of trouble.

My hope for you as you make this declaration:

I, Tann pray that this declaration allows you to increase your trust, courage, and faith rooted in God's promises. I pray you say what God says until you see what God said.
